EXCHANGE GUIDELINES

1. The student will:
 - (a) abide by the rules of the exchange organiser
 - (b) accept the advice and supervision of his/her host family.
 - (c) Not undertake travel in Europe on his/her own initiative.
 - (d) Make every effort to speak German/English
 - (e) Attend his/her German/NZ school regularly and will take an active part in school activities. He/she is expected to abide by normal German/NZ school discipline.
2. Parents will pay all travel costs including passport.
3. It is the parents' responsibility to make arrangements for adequate accident, medical, and travel insurance for the duration of the student's stay in Germany/New Zealand.
4. Parents will pay costs of clothing for their own child. They will be responsible for providing the child with an adequate amount of pocket money.
5. The basis of this programme is a direct and equal exchange between two families. The New Zealand parents accept the responsibility of caring for the German exchange partner and providing for him/her as they would for their own child. They will do their best to help the German student adapt to the New Zealand way of life and vice versa.
6. The parents of the exchange students agree to any medical treatment deemed necessary by a medical practitioner and accept responsibility for any existing illness their son/daughter may have.

We accept these conditions as fair and reasonable.
